

Partnership hosts explorer

The Superior Watershed Partnership hosted polar explorer Will Steger and The Longest Summer Tour in Marquette Oct. 19. From left, members of the tour, shown with local organizers, are Abby Fenton, Northern Michigan University student Michael Rotter, Steger, Toby Thorleifsson, SWP Executive Director Carl Lindquist and Brandon Knight. The Longest Summer Tour traveled the Midwest with presentations to communities about eye-witness accounts of climate change following many months of polar exploration in the Arctic and Ellesmere Island. At the event, local explorers were honored, including City Manager Judy Akkala, Dan Hornbogen Jr. and Lloyd Gilbertson.
